Sound Effects Add Audio Stimulation

Person-centred care

Multiple buttons allow individuals to choose what they like ...

With the screen brightness dimmed, sensory-sensitive Lauren told us that she liked the multi-coloured and random effects best – they reminded her of fireworks.

Johnie liked the multi-coloured effect too, but likes the green button best – especially the sound it makes.

Ian's verdict? "Nice!"

Colour Command Centre™
One panel, suitable for many users...

Independence

"Duncan was able to use this panel independently, without anyone helping - he interacted with the panel for some time, enjoying pressing different buttons, and the sounds these made. A thumbs up from Duncan!"

Ros, Manager, Edmund Street Centre

Inclusive

With the screen brightness dimmed to its lowest setting, Lauren who avoids bright lights, willingly interacted with the panel, and was able to enjoy choosing her favourite colours - green and blue. Lauren also liked the sounds produced when she pressed the buttons.

Interactive

Carol realised that she could also control the colours of other products using the Colour Command Centre™, such as fibre optics. As a fun game with Ros, Carol quickly chose the coloured button that Ros named, challenging response times and encouraging listening skills and concentration.

Super Safe Fibre Optics, Light Source and 8 Colour Wirefree Controller

"These super safe plastic fibre optics were bought for our new sensory room along with an LED light source and an 8 button wirefree controller. The package of items work well together, producing clear bright light effects which change instantly when different buttons are pressed, we have since bought further LED light sources so that other fibre optic things we have like a carpet work with the controller. The fibre optics are very effective for our sight limited [users] and for those with autistic spectrum conditions and PMLD, the [users] love to wrap the fibres around themselves and run their fingers through the fibres as the colours change, they also love to change the colour of the room when all the fibre optic are in use. The items are all well made and easy to use."

The Colour Catch Combo™ is inclusive and universally appealing. Multiple activity modes offer something for everyone:

- Colour Fill: press any of the coloured buttons (or a switch connected next to the buttons) to fill the display with colour. No fail, this encourages pair/teamwork and co-operative play. Interaction is encouraged by visual and auditory rewards.
- Colour Match: A coloured square appears in the display and users press the corresponding coloured button to score points. This activity encourages focus and concentration, as well as colour matching and motor skills.
- Memory Match: Like the Colour Match activity, but with an added challenge. The coloured square disappears after a few moments - the user recalls its colour and presses the corresponding button (or connected switch). This engaging activity tests memory skills as well as encouraging movement and participation.
- Falling Colour Match: Coloured squares randomly travel down the display - users press the corresponding coloured button (or their own switch) before the squares reach the bottom. Very popular with clients of all ages, this contest encourages quick-thinking, visual tracking, sequencing, motor planning and is great for individual and team play.

For less physically able users, interaction is also possible using a microphone, allowing participation by sound-making.

Communication

Menu Book

An essential tool that helps bridge the gap between carers and residents. This easy to understand book helps reduce frustration and misunderstanding by removing language as a barrier, letting the pictures do the talking. Colourful images of commonly eaten dishes provide an effective way of expressing menu choices at a time when communication can often be difficult because of language, cultural or generational differences, or because of a sensory impairment (such as hearing difficulties). Each selection contains pictures of everyday meals, drinks and snacks. By pointing at the dishes on the menu choices are clear, giving people control over their menu selections. This book also includes three wipe-clean boards to write your own messages and menu choices.

Benefits of Reminiscing

As individuals we all each have cherished memories and strong bonds to people, places and events, often personal to us, that we want to hold onto. This wish to recall these memories remains constant, even though cognitive abilities may be declining.

Prompting older adults, including those with dementia, to recall these memories has many benefits.

Reminiscence:

- stimulates memories that bring us joy and pride – this can recall an era when we were at our happiest
- is a sharing and inclusive activity which can involve families and bring all care providers together
- reduces feelings of isolation, agitation, stress, depression and boredom
- boosts a sense of competence and confidence
- encourages conversation, participation and socialising
- fosters a better understanding of individuals for person-centred care

ROMPA® Winslow® offer an extensive range of reminiscence materials. Drawing on our sensory expertise and experience – very importantly, many of these resources are multi-sensory. We understand that smells can stimulate memories that imagery alone cannot reach; tactile objects can spark interest, be felt and explored in way that photography may not always prompt. We have also consciously included a range of materials from different eras, as well as many items that older people can enjoy with grandchildren.

Therapy Dolls

Soft, Tactile and Cuddly

Realistic Attention

To Detail

Lilly "We initially purchased one of the dolls for a Lady living with Dementia in the home who was always talking about 'the babies'. Her reaction to the doll was overwhelming, her communication skills improved as she would sit and converse with the doll and also sing Nursery rhymes. Something that she may not have done or that we would have thought she was able to do. Subsequently we purchased a further 3 and they have had a really positive impact for our Ladies and Gentlemen living in the home, giving them the opportunity to still be able to nurture and create a sense of comfort and well-being. We also purchased a beautiful Silver Cross pram for the dolls and this encouraged people to go outside for walks in the fresh air. They are really soft and durable but also they are the weight of an average baby. Clothes are interchangeable and this helps people keep occupied with looking after them."

Ruth Abbs, Registered Home Manager, Birmingham

Lilly ★★★★★ "Maureen really enjoyed the Newborns and interacted well. She was talking and singing to them, especially to the girl Lilly. Maureen was initially agitated, but saw these dolls and immediately took to them and seemed happier."

Helen Longdon, Service Day Worker, Chesterfield

Tom ★★★★★ "Perfect doll. Much appreciated by the lady we gave it to - a real hit!"

Therapy Dolls

Therapy Dolls have been successfully used in mainland Europe for well over a decade, and are becoming increasingly popular in the UK. These dolls can have particular value for older adults with Dementia, as these are comforting and can provide a sense of purpose, role, identity and usefulness. In an era when many women have a profession, we should not forget that for many older ladies, their career was that of mother, housewife and homemaker. Furthermore, for someone who is looked after the majority of the time, it can be alerting, stimulating and empowering to experience role-reversal, and become the care-giver. These dolls can also help awaken memories of parenthood and happy family moments, as well as providing a sense of attachment. These dolls can have real symbolic significance, and because of their realistic attention to detail, they should not be regarded simply as dolls or toys. When combined with meaningful sensory input such as aromas, textures or vibration through the Heart, these dolls become even more important.

Boys

Each can be dressed and used with the Heart or with an aroma placed in cotton wool in the integral pocket in the side/back for added sensory input. Soft and washable.

Emelie

Doll Therapy can be valuable amongst people with Dementia as having something to care for can imbue a rewarding sense of purpose and usefulness, as well as helping to reduce anxiety. Emelie is dressable, cuddleable and comforting. When held like a real infant in your left arm, it is as though she is lovingly looking up at you. An appropriate weight (1.4kg) which can in itself be calming. With a pouch on her side, the Heart and aromas can be added. Her hair is lovely to stroke, and she may help stimulate memories of parenthood and happy family moments.

VAT RELIEF

Relief from VAT is only available on certain goods.

Relief is granted subject to all the following conditions:

1. The goods are being purchased by an eligible body, or charity for donation to an eligible body.
2. Supplies to or for donation to an eligible body must be funded entirely from charitable or voluntary contributions.
3. The goods are supplied or made available to persons with a disability.

We must point out however, that many of our products which are of benefit to people with a specific disability may not qualify for relief as they are designed for wider use. That is to say, if the designer of a product did not specifically design the item for disabled people, then it is regarded as a product that has been designed for wider use and as such must be subject to VAT. We are bound by the laws of HM Customs and Excise and have a legal obligation to charge VAT on certain products.

There is no blanket exemption from VAT for disabled persons or charities.

Our products are not classified as medical equipment.

We cannot, therefore, accept declarations requesting exemption in this category.

PLEASE NOTE

1. Prices exclude VAT and are valid until 31 December 2018 unless otherwise indicated. However, prices are subject to change without prior notice. These prices supercede all prices previously published by Rompa®
2. Products which are Zero Rated are indicated with zero rated by the price.
3. Products eligible for Vat Relief have 'VAT Relief' beside the price. Details for eligibility are indicated on the top of this page.
4. Prices are in pounds sterling and exclusive of VAT and handling and delivery charge. VAT will be added to all invoices unless a VAT Relief form is received with the order.
5. A delivery & handling fee is payable on most orders.
6. ROMPA® aims to despatch most orders within 48 hours of date of receipt. However certain products such as those marked may take up to 28 days. ROMPA® aims to give you a high level of customer service. Please read terms and conditions of sale to prevent misunderstandings. Terms and conditions are available from ROMPA® upon request
